A Few Words from the Rev. Gary Meade, Rector
"Peace be with you."

— John 20:19

When Jesus appeared to the disciples after his resurrection, his first words were, "Peace be with you." During all that they had experienced in the days leading to that amazing Easter day, his followers had probably known little peace. Christ's assurance to them I offer to you again this day: "Peace be with you."

For who cannot use a little more peace in our modern and all too frequently troubling times? Yet even in the midst of all that may happen in our own lives and in our world, this Easter season is a reminder that no matter what, God conquers all, and good triumphs over all. With that in mind, may you have a most blessed — and peaceful — May.

Your servant in Christ,

Gary
